

Please do not tamper with New Jersey's popular and successful do-not-call list. The intrusive and annoying calls of telemarketers have been blessedly absent from my home for a while now, and it would be simply crazy to let them resume their harassment with their unwanted phone calls. The FCC supposedly works for the public, not for telemarketers. When State laws are BETTER than Federal laws, leave them alone!